PASTOR'S CORNER

“A man can have a series of problems in life and still survive; but once he/she has problems with the truth, he/she is surely close to doom!! Truth can sometimes be bitter and difficult to accept, yet it must be at least acknowledged!! When one is not concerned with the truth, he/she becomes a dangerous and reckless individual to live with!!”

Feast of Corpus Christi explained. . . .

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ is also known as the Corpus Christi Solemnity, which means "Body of Christ" in Latin. This feast is either on the Thursday after Trinity Sunday or the Sunday after that feast.

The Holy Eucharist and the Church, two embodiments of Christ's Body, are the centerpiece of this feast. This feast's main objective is to draw our attention to the Eucharist. The opening prayer of Mass emphasizes Jesus' suffering and death, as well as our worship of Him, particularly in the Eucharist.

Our attention is drawn to the Eucharist and the Real Presence of Christ in it at every Mass. The Body of Christ as it is present in the Church is the secondary theme of this feast. Because of the close relationship that Jesus has with his disciples, the Church is called the Body of Christ. In the gospels, He explains this through the metaphor of a body, of which He is the head. This image helps to emphasize the Church's diversity as well as its unity.

Today we celebrate the gift of the Body and Blood of Christ we hear Jesus ask his disciples, “Why do you not give them something to eat yourselves?” And he shows them how by the multiplication of the five loaves and two fishes. Today, as you donate to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul know that the multiplication of the loaves and fishes will happen again and the hungry will be fed.

Please phone the parish office and give their contact information if you or someone you know has a cleaning or security business that you can recommend to our parish for events.

OUTREACH & EVANGELIZATION

Worried about identifying and responding to warning signs of depression, anxiety, suicide and substance abuse? The Archdiocese of Baltimore is providing training free of charge in Mental Health First Aid to any adults in our Archdiocesan community. The training is in Mental Health First Aid and takes about eight hours. You walk away with knowledge, skills and a 3-year certification. The training addresses signs of mental illness, self-harm, alcoholism and drug addiction in young people. St. Thomas Aquinas in Hampden is offering training on Saturday, June 25, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. The class comes with two hours of pre-work to be completed online. Lunch will be provided. You must RSVP by June 10. To sign up, contact Yvonne Wenger, the Archdiocese's director of community affairs, at yvonne.wenger@archbalt.org or 410-547-3158.

Combating Racism Town Hall Meeting – St. Vincent de Paul is holding a town hall focusing on combating racism on June 27, 2022, at 7:00 p.m. at St. Vincent de Paul Church (please wear a mask), 120 N. Front Street, 21202. For more information visit - <https://www.stvchurch.org/justice-service/racial-equity>. If you are unable to attend in person, the meeting will be livestreamed via their YouTube channel – stvchurch.org

Building a New Social Fabric in Baltimore - At a time when many people feel disconnected from neighbors and community, an organization in Baltimore brings together people of all ages, races, and socioeconomic status to end social isolation and build a more equitable culture in which everyone thrives. Thread, a local non-profit, harnesses the power of relationships to create a new social fabric of diverse individuals deeply engaged with young people facing the most significant opportunity and achievement gaps. Thread matches every young person it enrolls with an extended family of up to four volunteers from across the region who provide tailored support like rides to school, weekend dinners, or navigating transitions to adulthood. This customized support provided by Thread Families aims to increase outcomes like high school graduation rates, post-high school pathways, and a greater sense of belonging for everyone in our community. If you'd like to be part of transformational change and build a more connected Baltimore, visit thread.org/get-involved/volunteer/ to learn more about volunteer opportunities at Thread!"
