PASTOR'S CORNER

“Sometimes speaking the truth is not pretty, or popular, or rewarding (at least not immediately)!! The danger, therefore, will be the temptation to recoil from speaking for fear of offending some person(s) who may be beneficiaries of a horrible system!! But the real concern should not be the fear of offending someone if one speaks the truth, but rather, the fear of allowing others to be misled if one doesn’t speak the truth!! In the end, truth is like pregnancy: no matter how long you suppress it, it eventually comes out!!”

Lent

Fifth week: April 3-9

Our finish line is within sight as we enter the final week before Holy Week. The Church offers us readings that encourage and inspire us. In the readings, we can sense the rising conflict and struggle. As we read about the drama that surrounds Jesus' final days on earth and consider its meaning, we see how the drama in our own hearts grows more vivid as Lent draws to a close. The Holy Spirit is genuinely attempting to assist us in being more open and free in order to receive the gifts that our Lord wishes to give us.

Another spirit is working just as hard to divert our attention away from God's gifts, discourage us, and prevent us from being open and receptive to them. The more we grow closer to the mystery of our Lord's passion, death, and resurrection for us, the more we may struggle. The Lenten season is a great time to begin preparing to renew our baptismal promises at Easter. We can let go of unloving choices, and all that is unjust, dishonest, disrespectful, and violent.

Developing the habit of naming a wish first thing each morning and talking to our Lord about it is one method to find connection with Him. We can identify areas where God's grace is still being resisted. We might seek assistance in practicing new methods of being free or loving.

This week, we can give thanks every night. As we approach Holy Week and the events that led to our salvation, each of us can show our thankfulness, remembering that his sacrifice was all for us.

Individual Unbound Ministry Prayer

Many of us are fighting invisible battles with anxieties, negative thoughts, sins, unhealthy relationships, destructive habits, resentments and bitter wounds that never seem to heal. Unbound Ministry Prayer releases the power of Jesus into wounded lives. On Saturday April 9th, 2022 there will be trained teams available to provide individual prayer using the Unbound Model of prayer in Ellicott City, MD. Unbound Prayer is based on 5 scriptural keys that help you unlock those areas of your life where you want to receive greater freedom, healing & spiritual growth. If you would like to schedule an appointment or want more information, please contact Dan or Peggy Gahagan by Monday April 4th, 2022 at unboundministrymaryland@gmail.com. We ask that you read at least the first 7 chapters of the book Unbound, by Neal Lozano prior to scheduling an appointment to receive Unbound prayer (available at Amazon OR www.heartofthefather.com).

You have three (3) ways to submit bulletin items/church announcements: email to saintpeterpius@gmail.com; contact form on the church's website; or text to (443)527-5478. All announcements must be received no later than 5 p.m. on Wednesday.
